RIDDLE O'SHAY'S ARGUMENT

Anthor Who Wrote that Women Do Not Need So Much Higher Edueation is Duly and Respectfully Answered.

More than one hundred attended the meeting of the Douglas county teachers Saturday afternoon and all present were greatly pleased with the program as arranged by County Superintendent Yoder. The only regret expressed was on account of the inability of Superintendent Hunter of the Lanco'n schools to be present and deliver the address for which he was scheduled. However, his place was filled by Dr. Knight, head of the physical department of the Lincoln Mrs. Spencer Dies schools. His talk was along health lines and proved entertaining, and at its close ne was loudly applauded. Miss Go'die Vawter presided at the plano and rendered a couple of solos in a most charming manner.

In connection with the paper on Every Day Problems in Teaching," by een years, Prof. Odell, it developed that Mr. O'Shay, author of some book on educational topics, had given the inference that in his judgment there is a tendency to devote too much attention to the higher educaalong lines that so far as they are concerned, are not practical or useful in after years. The inference accredited to Author O'Shay at once became the target of the university and a member of the Kappa teachers.
